The Life of Gladys A. Blair

Gladys was born to this marital union of Shelton and Arma Jones in Hilly, Louisiana on October 25, 1920. Gladys was the oldest of nine children born to this union.

Gladys accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, at an early age and united with Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Dubach, Louisiana. She attended elementary and secondary school in Louisiana.

During 1946, Gladys met, was courted by, and later married Mr. Eddie Blair. To their marital union two children, Wanda Gail and Ronald Bernard were born.

Gladys united with Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Reverend Delley. She was very active in her church and always was found attending to the needs of others. She loved being of service to everyone. Gladys retired from Del Monte Cannery and helped raise her two grandsons.

On August 11, 2010, Gladys departed this life after a brief illness at her home, where she wanted to be. She leaves to cherish her memory; daughter, Wanda Gail; son, Ronald Bernard; grandsons, Rodney and Christopher; and great-granddaughter Kamrea. One brother, Wilbert Jones and two sisters, Ira Mae McIntosh and Earl Eva Jackson. She has so many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; it would be impossible to list you all by name. And Gladys loved each and every one of us unconditionally.

HER MACHINE HAS DONE ITS WORK WELL!

If you knew where I am standing; If you could see the sights I see.
If you could hear the angels sing; The songs they sing eternally.
If you knew the One I'm holding; Could see the smile He smiles at me.
If you knew where I am resting; You would not cry for me.
I'm resting in the arms of Jesus; No other place would I rather be.
So, If you shed a tear; Please don't shed it for me.
For If you knew where I am resting; You would not cry for me.
